The Best Man, Maid of Honour and Chief Bridesmaid have many key roles at a wedding, all with the intention of creating the best day for the Bride and Groom whilst making the event run seamlessly. The Bride and Groom have chosen Oh Hello to capture the heartfelt well wishes, the stories, the messages of love and the memories that a guestbook should convey and we have created a guide to help you.

We ask you to help create these memories by encouraging all guests to leave a message, leave two, leave more. Remember that anything goes. It can be funny, it can be heartfelt, it could be a story, a poem, a riddle, a quote, or a song.

Consider a mention of the guestbook during speeches or creating cards to give out to guests to remind them to leave their messages. Be creative, Be innovative.

Examples of messages that worked really well include a message from the newly weds to each other. They may need a reminder later in the day as no doubt they'll be having lots of fun.

A message from the Best man, the Bridesmaids, the new in-laws and a timeless message from elderly relatives (They may need help) One each or both together.

As the wonder of the day and evening pass, it would be quite easy for guests to forget to use the Audio Guestbook, so with your help, we can ensure amazing memories are left for the happy couple to enjoy forever.

N.B. Whilst the quality of voice recordings near a speaker will be good, people may be unable to hear greetings and the beep over music and you may not capture their message.
